

UNIVERSITY OF EDINBURGH.

FACULTY OF LAW.

FORENSIC MEDICINE.

FRIDAY, 24th June 1955.—2 to 4 P.M.

(ALL questions to be attempted.)

1. In defending a person charged with a breach of Section 15 of the Road Traffic Act, what points would you have in mind when cross-examining a police doctor who had examined your client and certified him as being under the influence of alcohol to such an extent as to be incapable of having proper control of his vehicle ?

- Talk about
- ① What do
 - ② No other
 - ③ Coarctia
 - ④ Permission
 - ⑤ own doctor
 - ⑥ immediately after
 - ⑦ Notes.
 - ⑧ Qualification
 - ⑨ what talk
 - ⑩ other drugs.

2. What factors would be of importance in establishing whether a fatal firearm injury had been inflicted (a) accidentally, (b) suicidally, or (c) by another person deliberately ?

3. Discuss briefly :—

- (a) Overlaying.
- (b) The application and value of blood-grouping tests in criminal cases.
- (c) Adipocere formation.

A B AB O
40 13 5 42

4. What are the statutory provisions dealing with male persons who have unlawful carnal knowledge of girls ?

What defences are open to a man charged with such an offence ?

The ORAL EXAMINATION will take place on WEDNESDAY, 29TH JUNE, at the DEPARTMENT OF FORENSIC MEDICINE, TEVIOT PLACE, commencing at 2 P.M.